Whose fault?

Is it your fault or the boy's that Young Hopeful doesn't understand the meaning of the word he has encountered, or knows nothing about the man of whose actions he has been reading? The boy comes to you while you are deep in the real estate reports, and you are annoyed at the interruption. Does not part of your annoyance arise from the fact that you don't know yourself?

The whole trouble, both for the boy and yourself, would be avoided if you had an Encyclopedia in the house—a good one, that is. Like many other people, you have not such a work, and you say, with considerable justice, that you have been unable to afford the purchase of one. That was true in the past but is no longer the case. You can buy the
